ORAL JUDGEMENT

When the matter was called out in the first round Shri Nandlal Thakkar, learned counsel for the petitioner was present and requested for adjournment of the matter on the ground that without taking instructions from his client he is not in a position to make submissions. Then he stated that his papers were not traceable on the last date and this court has granted two days time and within two days he got prepared the papers. He repeated his request that unless he receives instructions from his client, he is not in a position to make submissions in this matter. This court declined to grant the request for adjournment on this ground as it is a very old matter. Still Mr. Thakkar going on to repeat this request and the court asked him to give out whatever he wants to say in writing and the matter was kept back on his request. Then the matter was called out in the second round but none put appearance for the petitioner. Again the matter was called out in the third round but none put appearance for the petitioner.

This matter has come up earlier on 7/3/2000 on which date the same was adjourned to 21st March, 2000. On 21/3/2000 on the request of Shri Thakkar the matter is kept for hearing today. This is petition of the year 1989.

In the result, this Special Civil Application is dismissed for nonprosecution. Rule discharged. Interim relief, if any, granted by this court stands vacated. No order as to costs.
